WE BEG TO ANNOUNCE that we have been appointed Sole Agents for the sale of the above Patent Tie in Virginia and North Carolina. The satisfaction it gave last season wherever used, warrants us in recommending it as the best tie yet introduced. We shall have our supply direct from the manufacturer in England, for delivery in July or August, and at lowest market rates.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 24, 1870.

JUDGE BROOKS AT CHAMBERS—HABEAS CORPUS CASES.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23d.

At 10½ o'clock, Judge Brooks took his seat in the Senate Chamber, to hear the matters arising under the writs of habeas corpus issued by him.

Judge Brooks stated, that the process issued under the rule to compel the respondent G. W. Kirk to appear at 10 o'clock A. M. to show cause why attachment should not issue against him for contempt, in failing to make full return to the writs of habeas corpus issued by him, was made returnable at the Court House in this city, but by consent of the counsel, the return could be made at the Senate Chamber, which was agreed to.

Messrs. W. A. Graham and A. S. Merrimon appeared for the petitioners, and Messrs. McCorkle, Bailey and Olds, for the respondent.

Gov. Graham stated that he had been informed that the prisoners for whom the late writs had been issued had arrived.—He desired very much to see them liberated and preferred that some action, at least, to the extent of liberating them, should be had prior to taking up the returns; and if the counsel on the other side were ready to go into the trial of their cases, he would prefer to do so at once and suspend the proceedings in the other case for the present.

Mr. McCorkle one of the counsel for the respondent Kirk, had no idea that these cases would be brought up to-day, thought the return would be taken up and disposed of first, consequently they were not prepared to go into the trial of the new cases at present, as they did not have the returns ready, but thought they could be ready in an hour.

Gov. Graham said he would readily consent to a postponement of the cases for a reasonable time, but in the mean time suggested that the prisoners be released on bail.

Mr. Bailey said he had no objection to the parties being bailed, though he thought they could have the return ready by 3 o'clock, P. M.

Judge Brooks said, he was of opinion that the rule had precedence over these cases; besides, the amount of bail could not be fixed upon until it was known what charges were preferred against the petitioners and to what extent such charges might be sustained; he therefore, thought it best to continue with the rule, which accordingly was taken up.

Mr. Bailey read the return of the respondent, which was a disclaimer, that the respondent Kirk meant any disrespect or contempt to His Honor or his Court, and that he had not surrendered the body of the petitioner in this case, having prior to the return day at Salisbury, surrendered him in obedience to a similar writ issued by Chief Justice Pearson, and served upon him prior to the service of the writ from this Court.

Mr. Merrimon held that the return was wholly insufficient, and urged that a certified copy of the proceedings in the case which were had in the State Court should have been appended to the return.

Mr. Bailey insisted that the return was correct and complete, his client had purged himself of any intentional contempt to the Court and the only question for the Court to decide was whether his Honor believed the respondent Kirk, intended any disrespect or contempt.

Gov. Graham insisted that the writ was entirely insufficient and proceeded to argue the point with great force and ability, at length. We cannot do justice to the argument and therefore attempt no resume of it.

Mr. McCorkle replied to the argument of Mr. Graham discussing, ably, the merits of the question.

Judge Brooks said that the question now under consideration, is not one directly affecting the rights of the petitioner but only the dignity of this Court. It being admitted that the petitioner is not now in the custody of the military, the only question now under consideration is, whether a contempt of this Court has been committed, and that renders it important to inquire whether the proceedings before the Chief Justice of North Carolina were exhausted or discontinued before the service of process from this Court. To enable this Court to arrive at a correct conclusion in regard to that point, it is clearly proper that a record of the proceedings referred to should be before this Court. If it shall be determined that the proceeding in behalf of this petitioner before the Chief Justice were discontinued before the surrender, then another question may arise and that will be, to some extent, a question of intent on the part of the respondent, Kirk.

By agreement of counsel this was postponed until to morrow at 10½ o'clock, and it was further agreed to take up the last cases for whom writs were issued at Salisbury on the 19th inst., returnable at Raleigh at 3½ o'clock this evening.

Court then adjourned until 3 o'clock.

EVENING SESSION.

TUESDAY, Aug. 23

Judge Brooks took the chair at three and a half o'clock.

Mr. McCorkle for the respondent Kirk, stated that counsel was prepared to make returns for those prisoners now held in close custody; there were some who were now on parole, those returns would be made on to morrow morning.

The first case called was that of John Trollinger, charged in connection with other citizens with colluding to burn a school house and with burning said house.

Mr. Olds, counsel for the respondent Kirk said, they made these returns not with the wish or design of going into an examination before this Court, for the reason that he was of the opinion that this Court had no jurisdiction of alleged offences against the State of North Carolina; that this Court had no power to bind (whatever might be the facts shown,) this petitioner to answer before a State Court, that any bond or recognizance taken by this Court to that end would be void, and in this he was sustained by the judiciary of the State, and that he did not then feel called upon to state what course would be subsequently pursued in reference to this petitioner and others now before this Court.

Gov. Graham, in reply said that this seemed to be an intimation that when these parties are discharged by this Court that they would be re-arrested. The law said that when a party was once lawfully discharged, he is not liable to be re-arrested for the same offence. He supposed that the counsel for the respondent intended to intimate that a discharge by this Court would not so effectually protect the petitioner as a discharge by the State Court, and contended that a discharge ordered by this Court would be as effectual in all respects as if granted by the State Court.

His Honor, Judge Brooks then said, that he had no doubt in regard to the jurisdiction of this Court. This question had been examined fully upon the application of those who first applied for writs and before process was issued, referring to the 1st section of the 14th amendment of the Constitution of the United States, which distinctly declares who are citizens of the United States, which clearly embraces all such as the petitioners whose cases are now under consideration; and this section further declares that no State shall pass or enforce any law to deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law.

Then His Honor caused to be read the act of the 5th Feb. 1867, and said, he regarded that act as materially extending the jurisdiction of this Court in habeas corpus proceedings, that there was no case in which a citizen charged with a crime of any character, whether against the United States or a State of which this Court had not jurisdiction upon petition of the party restrained of his liberty, if such petitioner shall allege, that which is recognized by the law to be alleged in his petition. It is not pretended that this Court has jurisdiction to try and to punish for any offence against the State of North Carolina, but it is alike within the power as it is clearly the duty of this Court under the act referred to, to hear and to determine upon any legal evidence offered, whether the petitioner shall be committed or held to bail to secure his appearance before a State tribunal, to answer to the charge. It would be strange indeed if it were not so, for the act referred to expressly provides, upon the production of a petitioner that the Court shall examine the evidence, and this requirement would be of no force without the power of securing the party's appearance before any tribunal having jurisdiction of the offense charged.

Gov. Graham moved that the prisoner be discharged, as no evidence was produced against him; the order for his discharge was made.

L. M. Totten, was next called, charged with the murder of John W. Stephens; no evidence; was discharged.

John G. Lee was called, charged with the murder of John W. Stephens, of going in disguise and of assault on ——— colored man in disguise; no evidence; was discharged.

John M Bradshaw was called, charged with conspiracy against the government of the State; no evidence; was discharged.

Wm. W. Whitsett was called, charged with conspiracy, &c; no evidence; was discharged.

Jerry Albright was called, charged with conspiracy, &c; no evidence; was discharged.

Thos. D. W. Gray was called, charged with conspiracy with others to burn a school house in the county of Alamance, and of burning said school house; no evidence; was discharged.

W. G. Graves was called, return said Graves was arrested by mistake, and was released unconditionally by the respondent, had no claim for futher detention; was legally discharged.

The following parties being on parole it was agreed by counsel to release them, and make their returns on to-morrow morning, viz: Messrs. John G. Albright, John Andrews, Nathaniel Lee, John B. Blackwell, J. A. Patton, Josiah Thompson, Geo. T. Johnson, Jas. T. Dixon, Calvin Gibson, Moses Shaw and Wm. Tate.

Mr. Olds arose to retire, when His Honor remarked that he desired to call his attention to a remark of his made in the argument, that he had said something of a course subsequently to be pursued towards the petitioners by the State authorities. His Honor desired to say to him, that as a citizen, he had never been disposed to interpose any obstacle, even the least, to prevent any lawful proceeding for the purpose of ascertaining offenders, their trial and punishment, but on the contrary he believed it to be the desire of every good citizen that violators of the law should not only be ascertained but punished; that in his official position he certainly never would interpose any obstruction to the enforcement of the law, but desired to say further, that if under the pretence of enforcing the law a contempt of this Court shall be committed by any one, such person may expect to be visited with the severest penalties of the Law.

Mr. Olds disclaimed any intention of casting any reflection on the Court; on the contrary he had the highest regard for His Honor and had always endeavored to be so understood.

The Court adjourned to meet to-morrow at 10 o'clock.

SECOND DAY.

WEDNESDAY, Aug. 24th.

The Court met at 10 o'clock, Judge Brooks presiding.

His Honor stated that the business in order was the question arising on the exception taken to the insufficiency of the return.

Mr. McCorkle presented the return as amended, appending the proceedings had before the Chief Justice Pearson in this case.

Judge Merrimon read the return together with the petition in the cases, which consumed some time after which, His Honor adjourned the Court to meet again at 3 o'clock P. M.

A MOUNTAIN OF SALT.—In Pharnarga district, in the Southwestern part of the State of Nevada, distant from Austin about 180 miles, there is a remarkable mountain of salt about 70 miles south of the mines. It is reported to be about five miles in length and 600 feet in bright. The body of the salt is of unknown depth. It is chemically pure and crystaline, and does not deliquesce on exposure to the atmosphere. Like rock, it requires blasting from the mine whence it is taken in large blocks and is as transparent as glass. This would afford an abundant supply to the world, could it be cheaply mined and cheaply transported; but it now stands in the wilderness, an object for the admiration of the curious and the inspection of the scientific. It is believed that there is but one other place on the globe where it exists in such a state of purity in workable quantities, and that is at Cracow, Poland.—Exchange.

There is a serious split in the ranks of the Republican party in Alabama—one faction, headed by Senator Spencer, declaring that there have been eleven hundred assassinations in the State in the last two years and that the Governor has failed in his duty by not calling out a military force; while the other side, headed by the Governor, contends that the State is, as a whole, peaceful and law-abiding, and that the courts are not only unresisted in the exercise of their functions, but fully able to deal with all current crime. The occasion of the whole squabble is that Spencer desires a re-election to the Senate, and, knowing that his only chance is a bayonet legislature, fabricates his bloody tales. The Governor having no interest that way tells the truth, and the Senator of course hates him.—Exchange.

BENCH WARRANT CASES BEFORE JUDGE PEARSON.

(THE STATE VS F. A. WILEY)

TUESDAY, AUG. 23.

Mack Leath examined, lives in Yanceyville; was at the meeting there the day Stephens was killed; saw Stephens soon after the speaking commenced in the afternoon, thinks about 3 o'clock; he was sitting back in the crowd, didn't see him go out; witness left half hour before speaking closed, went out and was about on the street until about sundown, could have seen Stephens if he had come out in front of the Court House.

CROSS EXAMINED.

When I went out was walking about; was at Capt. Mitchell's grocery some 25 or 30 yards from the Court House, on the west; went also to the meeting at the school house which is a quarter of a mile off; came back after a while and went to Mitchell's where the crowd generally stands; wasn't looking for Stephens at all, didn't think about him till I heard he was missing.

RE DIRECT.

Think I went down to the meeting at the school house before the crowd came out of the Court House.

Joseph Womack examined.

Lives in Yanceyville township, was in the town on the day of the murder; went to the Court House about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, didn't go in; wanted to see Stephens; saw a man who said he was from the railroad, and asked him if he knew where Stephens was. The man replied, he had just seen him up in the Court room and he reckoned he was there in the room where they were giving in taxes. Witness stood near the gate and looked down the passage to see if he could see Stephens.—While looking saw some men come out of the last door on the left of the passage, they was Frank Wiley, Logan Totten, Jim Mitchell and three others. Wiley passed on and went on towards Harrelson's store, was sweating as if he had been at work; don't know where the others went, didn't notice. Witness then left and went to the caucus meeting at the school house; came back and assisted to guard the Court House that night; was on the front; don't think any one could have passed in or out without his seeing them; saw no whites on guard, did not see Hemphill, but saw Henry Stephens.

CROSS EXAMINED.

Was summoned, on Saturday a week ago, to come here; after the murder went to Danville, came back when the soldiers came to Yanceyville; had been in Kirk's camp since he came to Yanceyville; had been doing things for his friends and neighbors; had done nothing in the camp; came with Kirk to Graham; the other witnesses did not come; went to Salisbury; went because he did not know but the trial was to be there; Kirk, he said, had ordered him to come with him; he came back to Graham with the troops and stayed there with them till he came here. He left Salisbury on Friday morning; had thought the prisoners were to be there, but found they were not and came back; didn't know but Wiley was taken to Salisbury; saw him a Graham, knew he was put in jail there, but didn't know he was brought here; didn't see him on the train, didn't know he was ordered here. He was in the same car with the prisoners that went to Salisbury but didn't know Wiley was not along. Don't know how long he stayed at Graham, got board among the colored people there, got nothing from the soldiers at Graham nor at Yanceyville. He got no pay from the soldiers.

He told to Ruffin Hill about seeing the men come out of the room, on the Tuesday after Stephens was buried; had told no one else white or colored and told him to tell no one. His gave in his evidence to Burgen at Yanceyville soon after the troops came to Yanceyville; Burgen had been there four or five days before he told him; told it then because he was afraid to do it before. Had told the guard, when they first came, that he wanted to see Burgen, and the guard said he reckoned he was busy; would not say he had not been in the Court House before that after the troops arrived; he had passed through there frequently. He got acquainted with Kirk and Burgen soon after they arrived—some 4 or 5 days. He talked with Kirk at Mrs. Stephens'; he happened there and Kirk came there after he did and took breakfast there. Mrs. Stephens and Mr. Henry Stephens were present; I was not introduced to Col. Kirk; had seen Kirk and Burgen before—saw them a day or two after they came. Saw Burgen have Wiley in custody the first day he came, which was on Monday; saw Kirk a day or two after; I was at Danville when the Regulars came, but was at Yanceyville when the State troops came. Did'nt say anything to Kirk at Mrs. Stephens' but "howdy," didn't tell him I knew anything about this matter, it was 4 or 5 days after I met Kirk that I saw Burgen in his office in the Court House. Did not tell Mrs. Stephens nor Henry Stephens, nor any one else. Did not sign my name to what Burgen wrote; Kirk took down my evidence in regard to the Ku Klux matter at Greensborough and I signed that. I was not sworn when I gave my evidence to Burgen.

It was about 4 o'clock when I went to the Court House on the day of the murder—I had just come from Greensboro' from the Ku Klux trial before Judge Tourgee; had been staying about the country among my friends; simply happened to be in Yanceyville that day. I was Ku Kluxed on the 30th of April. I went down to the Court House in the morning and then again at 4 o'clock; wanted to see Stephens to get a warrant from him, he was a magistrate; I wanted a warrant against a party who had made threats against me; didn't go to Stephens' house to look for him. [Witness repeats about seeing the men come out at the door.] One of them seemed to stop as they came out, as if he was shutting the door; not positive, thinks he did. Was at the Court House on Monday; went down the passage to look at the door to be sure I was right about it, wanted to be positive.

He heard that Stephens was missing about dusk, while at Jerry Graves; a woman came to the gate and said Ruffin Hill wanted me and Wiley Turner to go down to the Court House, that Stephens was missing and they wanted us down there.—We went down, saw several persons about there, was with them in the search through the rooms below, don't think I went up in the Court room. We couldn't get into the room where the body was afterwards found; didn't say anything at that time about seeing the men come out of that room that day; knew they went round to look in at the windows but didn't go with them; knew nothing about the box; saw them have a candle, heard nothing about blood on the box; was not there on Sunday, left soon in the morning to go to Church about 3 miles off; left before the body was found, came back in the evening, heard that the jury had met, was there on Monday in the Court room and stayed till the inquest adjourned, went during the day to look at the door to be positive about it; don't remember who were examined before the inquest on Monday; don't know much about the other doors on the passage, don't know what rooms they lead to, nor how many of them. Left and went to Danville on Tuesday, about 1 o'clock; went for fear of danger, told Ruffin Hill about seeing the men, before leaving on Tuesday. Saw no one in the passage on Saturday but the men named—went to the caucus meeting soon after seeing them, perhaps about 10 minutes; saw no one else but the man who said he came from the Railroad. Heard them speaking in the Court House while I was standing at the gate, don't know whether the meeting closed before I left or not.

RE DIRECT.

Didn't hear anything about the box that night nor on Monday, never heard of it before here to day.

TO THE CHIEF JUSTICE.

After I told Kirk and Burgin what I saw, I stayed with them for fear of being molested.

Adjourned to 3 o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Chief Justice resumed his seat upon the Bench at 3 o'clock, P. M.

Ruffin Hill, col., was called upon the stand and testified: Saw Joe Womack on Tuesday morning after Stephens was killed and was told by him that he had seen Mr. Wiley and five others come out of the room where the murder was committed; knew three of them, Mr. Wiley, Logan Totten, Capt. James Mitchell, did not know the others. Womack told him not to say anything about it as he was afraid of being killed, Mr. Wiley, Womack said, was in the lead when he saw him with his hat in one hand and wiping his face with the other. He (Hill) got to the Court House about sundown; saw Mr. Stephen's two brothers there with some colored men; Joe Womack was then; sent Titus Jones after Womack and Wiley Turner to come there; did not know the colored people then present.

CROSS EXAMINED.

It was an hour before saw Joe Womack at the Court House; no search had then been made; keys had been sent for; Mr. Norfleet, Mr. James and Mr. Sam Hill were there when the keys came the search was made; he did not go in with the party asking the search; did not know whether Joe Womack went in. Mr. Kerr went in but shortly afterwards came out by the front door. Two searches were made. Staid at the Court House all night; did not stay in front of it but went around till different squads.—Saw Mr. Hemphill come out of the passage of the Court House next daybreak; did not know whether he staid in the Court House all night. Didnot see the windows examined. Was at the Court House on Sunday when the jury was in session. Saw Joe Womack who went home with him.—The body had not been found when first there, but was discovered upon his return on the second visit. He did not go back with him, but saw him afterwards. Saw Joe on Tuesday when he told him about Mr. Wiley and five others coming out of the room where the body was found and promised Womack that he would not say anything about what had been told him, and had never done so until now. Did not recollect seeing Joe on Tuesday night; did not see him for sometime after, perhaps a week or two. Had said nothing of what Womack had told him in regard to Mr. Wiley because had promised not to do so. He understood what had been told him to mean that Mr. Wiley and the five others were implicated in the murder. He never went to the jury after Sunday; had kept strictly to his business. He recollected now that he had been examined in regard to Womack's conversation at the Court House at Yanceyville about two weeks ago by some soldiers; did not know who they were. Believed the took his evidence down in writing and said something about making a mark for him. He was sent for and soldier came to the Court House with him. Joe Womack was at the gate of the Court House yard when he went to be examined. No one had talked to him about the matter since that examination. Left Yanceyville on Saturday morning and came to the Company Shops.

Benj. Shaw, col. being next examined testified substantially as follows: Was at the Court House in Yanceyville on the day of the political meeting when Stephens was killed; got into town that day about 4 o'clock P. M.; came to give in taxes; saw Sawyer, Watt and the Clerk, Mr. Brandon talking together at the front door. Also saw Mr. Graves, Wiley, Fowler, Jno. Lee and Bennett. Mr. Graves was in the room taking taxes.

CROSS EXAMINED.

Saw Mr. Wiley going towards the steps of the back door. After giving in taxes, Mr. Lee and Mr. Bennett came into the room; soon after saw Mr. Lee and Mr. Fowler get into a buggy and drive off.—Last saw Mr. Wiley at a pump watering his horse. Could have been more than a half an hour of the time, when he (Shaw) saw him going towards the steps of the back door of the Court House; Mr. Bennett and Lee were standing opposite to the door of the room where Stephens was murdered when Mr. Wiley passed them going to the back door, and saw him in a half an hour afterwards watering his horse at a pump; a boy named Albert was pumping the water; saw Mr. Lee and Fowler shortly afterwards going on their buggy; did not see anything of any of them afterwards.—Did not stay in town that night; left about sundown. Was examined yesterday at the Capitol in regard to this matter. Now remembers that he was examined at Yanceyville by Kirk. Did not know who examined him at the Capitol. [Here Mr. Badger asked the witness if he did not examine him in the Supreme Court room.—The witness replied that he could not tell. Mr. Badger then referring to his papers told the Chief Justice, that he had examined the witness at the time mentioned and had his evidence in writing.]

Judy Robinson called and examined.

Was in Yanceyville on the day of the meeting, was in the Court House about 3 o'clock or sooner; went from there to Harralson's store; there were "a heap of folks" in there, passing backwards and forwards; saw Mr. Wiley come in, he pulled his hat off and seemed to be hot; somebody asked him if he had been running, and he said, "no, haven't been running but worse." His face looked red, that generally looks red; don't know that it was asked him if he had been running.

CROSS EXAMINED.

It was after dinner when I went to the Court House, I live in old Mrs. Robinson; she has her dinner when she can get it—sometimes at 12 o'clock, sometimes later, just as it happens. Have been examined three times before, don't know who examined me; don't know, but think I told the jury at Yanceyville that Mr. Wiley came to the store about two o'clock, or between 2 and 3. Wiley had on "a yaller coat a checkady breshes" when he come in the store. Knew Wiley very well—knew it was he. Wiley came out and went towards Mr. [illegible] store.

RE DIRECT.

Wiley didn't buy anything in the store, didn't carry out anything; don't know whether he bought anything at Mitchell's or not.

Court then adjourned to 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

SIXTH DAY

WEDNESDAY MORNING, Aug. 24

The Court met pursuant to adjournment.

F. A. Wiley, the accused, made the following statement:

Arrived in Yanceyville on the 21st May, 1870, about 9 o'clock in the morning, drove up to the South end of the Court House, a little west of the South door of the Court House, near a locust tree. While unhitching my horse was called to by Mr. Stephens, who said he wished to have a talk with me. After tying my horse I stepped in at the South door into the passage, and there found Mr. Stephens and Mr. John Hemphill, spoke to them; in a few moments Mr. Hemphill moved away up the passage of the Court House, leaving me and Mr. Stephens alone. Mr. Stephens then remarked to me, "I have been wanting to see you for some time; I want you to aid me in harmonizing political matters in this county. I want you to run for Sheriff, I look upon you as being a moderate man in politics, I can not support our present Sheriff, nor can my party. Now, if you can get the Conservative nomination here to-day, we will make no nomination for Sheriff and my party will support you." I replied that I had been Sheriff once, I quit it of my own accord and had no aspirations for it again; that I had an old mother to take care of, and my wife was in bad health and I preferred to stay at home. Mr. Stephens then said, "don't make up your mind hastily, I want to talk with you further on the matter," and we then separated.—I went in the office of Watt & Withers, and on going in Mr. Watt rather jeered me for having a talk with Stephens, or asked what I and Stephens were so familiar about. I then stated to him what we had been talking about, and I observed to Mr. Watt that Mr. Stephens had on one occasion obliged me and I could not forget it, and if others saw fit to crow at him I should always treat him with respect.

I was led out a few moments, but soon returned and paid Mr. Watt a fee I owed him, and then went directly to the Court room above, and participated in the Conservative meeting until it adjourned for recess about 12 o'clock. It was to meet again at 1½ o'clock, but I think it did not meet until about 2. After the re assembling, I heard the nominations read out, and the speech of Col. Livingston Brown, which lasted a considerable time, then the speech of Col. Withers, which was a short one. Then Mr. Hodnett rose to make a speech, and during the time he was speaking I left the Court room. As I left I saw Mr. Stephens sitting within a few seats of the end of the Court room and near the end of the bench, who seemed to be taking notes. I went out and went over to Capt. Mitchell's Drug Store and took some refreshment, and then returned to the Court room.—When I got back, Hon. Bedford Brown was speaking. Mr. Stephens was still sitting where I left him. As I passed him, he took hold of my pants and drew me towards him, and said, "I am busy now, I want to take some notes, in a little while I want to see you." I walked a few steps up the aisle towards the bar; just then Mr. Williamson Martin drew me to him and we had some conversation about the nominations.—While I was talking with Martin, I saw Mr. Stephens beckon to me; I approached and put my hand either on the back of the bench or his shoulder as I stooped towards him. Mr. Stephens then said "I am ready, let's go down." I walked on ahead and he followed; when we reached the steps we commenced a conversation, by his remarking, "I want to put you on my ticket for Sheriff." When we reached the vestibule, I told him peremptorily that I could not and would not be a candidate. I then went out at the gate on the public square, in the direction of the pump and towards Mitchell's Drug Store. Mr. Thomas Bigelow came up and we had some conversation. In a short time John H. Kerr came up; he and myself went over to Mr. Johnston's store, where I loaned him fifty dollars, according to a previous promise, and took his note for it. I then returned immediately to the Court House and in the vestibule met Mr. John C. Wilkerson, who seemed to be reading the advertisemen's on the wall; we talked awhile about the nominations, and in the conversation I mentioned that Stephens had endeavored to persuade me to become a candidate for Sheriff. At that moment, looking down the passage, I saw Stephens standing in the passage opposite the Grand Juryroom, where the tax lists were taken, talking to a colored man, and pointed Mr. Wilkerson's attention to the fact. Wilkerson and myself soon went out on the square in the direction of the pump, where we saw Jerry Smith and Mr. Dismuke, who were on their horses to start home, and asked me if I was not ready to go. I told them I was; and remarked to Wilkerson I had bought a bottle of bitters in the morning at Isralson's and proposed that we should go and get a drink of it.—We went and after drinking, came out towards the pump, Wilkerson said he had to go to Mitchell's for some medicine for James Malone, and then he would be ready. I told him I would go and get my horse. I walked immediately through the passage of the Court House to the South end where I found Hamp Johnston and told him to fetch my horse. While he was doing so, I was approached by Le Hensley, who said I had him bound out while I was Sheriff, and wanted to know if he couldn't get some pay, and how he could get it. I told him to go to Henry Brannon the Clerk, and to employ counsel, that I could tell him nothing about it. About that time Dr Richmond I think came up and perhaps other, and I commenced joking Hamp Johnston about a niece of his who lived at my house. I wished to see the Clerk Henry Brannon, stepped to his office, but finding it locked, I returned, went to my buggy and drove round to the pump, went into Mr. Henderson's store opposite and asked for a bucket to water my orse. He had no bucket, but he me bave a noggin, which I took to the pump; a colored man pumped the water for me, and having watered my horse, I told him to return the noggin, and I got in my buggy and left in company with Mr. Wilkerson which was, I think, about 5 o'clock. About a mile from town we overtook Col. Winston and Wm. Long; we travelled together about a quarter of a mile, talking on the nomination made that day. At the fork road they took the Milton road; we the Leasburg road. About three miles from town overtook Jerry Smith and Mr. Dismukes, and travelled with them to Mr. Covington's, 8 miles from Yanceyville, where we arrived at sunset. Here Wilkerson turned off toward home, Smith and myself went on to my gate, within half a mile of my house which was about dusk.

and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, considerably lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

The Excelsior issues Policies on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders, all the really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured are privileged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

☞ Hitherto I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone, which most of the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies, in this state who Excelsior introduced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without an exception, and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue, because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income to each through life, or for a series of years as preferred.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished. The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the Excelsior forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.

THE RECEPTION TO-MORROW.

Agreeable to previous arrangement, the reception of Hon. Josiah Turner Jr. and Hon. John Kerr and others, recently discharged from under military arrest by Kirk, acting under orders from Gov. Holden, will take place to-morrow on the arrival of the train from Hillsboro. The programme for the occasion appears in our columns to-day.

It was very generally desired by many of our older citizens that this demonstration should have been deferred until suitable arrangements could have been made for the reception and the jubilee in honor of the glorious Democratic Conservative victory in the State, with barbecue, torch light procession &c. all at one and the same time, but many of our young merchants and mechanics had adopted their programme for the reception, before their purpose was known generally. As publication had been extensively given to their purpose and arrangements made, it was finally deemed best to avoid confusion and disappointment, to make no change in the arrangement so unanimously adopted chiefly by the young men of the city.

It is anticipated that many persons from the country and adjacent counties will be here to participate, and it is the universal desire both of those immediately concerned in getting up the demonstration and our citizens generally, that all causes of disorder or disturbance shall be carefully avoided by all parties. It is especially desired that no cause of offence will be given to those who differ from those who participate in the reception, and of course that they will give none. Such demonstrations are lawful and many think expedient at this time, and none have a right to interfere.

In our orderly city we anticipate no disturbance. The Mayor of the city will do his duty on the occasion. He will cheerfully aid the Marshals no doubt in the preservation of perfect order, and if need be, which we do not expect, the aid of Gen. Hunt, in command of the U. S. troops in the city will be invoked.

It is especially enjoined upon all to avoid all unnecessary sources of excitement and all possible collisions of any kind.

Jailed.—We have just learned that Burgen, Holden's and Kirk's famous Lieut. Col. was arrested and imprisoned to-day. We have not learned the particulars.

The Court and Military.—On yesterday when Kirk went into Judge Brooks' Court, we learn, that some of his soldiers or guards followed him. As soon as Judge Brooks perceived it, he told the Marshal, there is no necessity for the military in the Court-room, and ordered him to remove them. This was quickly done.

Flowers and Carriages.—Were requested on behalf of the Committee of arrangements to solicit from the ladies of the city flowers for decorating carriages, and also to ask the owners of carriages and horses in the city to place them at the disposal of the Committee on to-morrow afternoon.

Grapes.—We are indebted to Messrs. W. C. Stronach & Co. for a fine lot of excellent grapes for the table. They keep them on hand for sale.

A Chapter of Facts.

Space is valuable in a newspaper, and it is therefore proposed in this advertisement to condense a variety of facts, important to the public, into a small compass. Those facts refer to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters—what that celebrated medicine is, and what it will do. In the first place then, the article is a stimulant, tonic and alterative, consisting of a combination of an absolutely pure spirituous agent with the most valuable medicinal vegetable substances that Botanic research has placed at the disposal of the chemist and the physician. These ingredients are compounded with great care, and in such proportions as to produce a preparation which invigorates without exciting the generators, and tones, regulates and controls the stomach, the bowels, the liver and the minor secretive organs.

What this great restorative will do must be gathered from what it has done. The cases of dyspepsia, or any other form of indigestion, in which it has been persistently administered without effecting a radical cure is yet to be heard from, and the same may be said of billious disorders, intermittent fever, nervous affections, general debility, constipation, sick headach, mental despondency, and the peculiar complaints and disabilities to which the feeble are so subject. It purifies all the fluids of the body, including the blood and the gentle stimulus which it imparts to the nervous system is not succeeded by the slightest reaction. This is a chapter of facts which readers, for their own sakes, should mark and remember.

A CIVIC TRIUMPH!!!

THE GRAND DEMONSTRATION

IN HONOR OF

HON. JOSIAH TURNER, JR.,

HON. JOHN KERR,

AND OTHERS,

Will come off to-morrow, 25th inst., at 3 o'clock, P. M. on the arrival of the train from Hillsboro, Mr. Turner having signified his intention to return to the City at that time.

Every effort will be made to preserve the utmost order, as it is universally desired by all concerned, that nothing shall occur to mar the general joy.

PROGRAMME.

The following programme for the occasion will be observed.

The procession will be formed at G. W. Wynns & Co's. Livery Stables, at 2 o'clock, P. M.

The following is the order of march:

1st. Band of Music.
2nd. Flags with devices.
3rd. Marshalls mounted.
4th. Carriages for guests.
5th. Citizens vehicles.
6th. Citizens on foot.

The procession will proceed from the South Capitol gate down Fayetteville street to Cabarrus street and thence to the Depot.

On the arrival of the train, a National salute of 35 guns will be fired, in honor of habeas corpus and Judge Brooks.

The guests will be escorted to the carriages by a corps of Marshals, when the procession will proceed North to Hillsboro Street, thence East to Fayetteville Street, thence down Fayetteville Street to the Court House.

Reception addresses will be made by Hon. A. S. Merrimon and addresses will be made by Hon. Josiah Turner, Jr., Hon. John Kerr and others.

The entire procession will be under the direction of the Chief Marshals.

The Assistant Marshals, Flag Bearer and Bearer of Devices will appear in order as heretofore announced.

By order of

COMMITTEE.

Judge Pearson's Court.—We regret to learn that Chief Justice Pearson, at an important stage of the investigation for Mr. Wiley, pending the examination of witnesses for the defense, abruptly determined to change the place of holding the Court from the Court House to the Supreme Court room, and intimated that spectators would not be admitted. Is that right and just to Mr. Wiley? Does it not directly infringe his rights as a citizen? Is it right to allow witnesses to emblazon the acts of an accused party before an assembled crowd in a Court House and then when the accused brings forward his rebutting evidence, to remove the trial to a corner in the State Capitol, in a room that will scarcely hold fifty persons? Is that justice? Has the Chief Justice forgotten that the new Constitution, his own Republican Constitution, declares in the Bill of Rights:

Sec. 35. All Courts shall be open, and every person for an injury done him in his lands, goods, person or reputation, shall have remedy by due course of law, and right and justice administered without sale, denial or delay.

Death from Eating Spiders.—A singular death occurred in Tishomingo county, Miss., a few days ago. Mr. Pennington, a stout, healthy farmer, had a slight chill last Sunday. The day before he was in excellent health. Monday morning he felt the approach of another chill and lay down on the bed. After lying awhile, he remarked that he had heard it said that spider-webs "were good for the chills." He rose from the bed, and, gathering from the walls or, ceiling of the room a web, in which there were three "spider balls," as they are called swallowed them. Immediately there was heard within his chest a faint sound as if the balls had burst, and in ten minutes he was dead. Very soon his throat, lips, and the whole of his face were greatly swollen by the action of the poison.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Tuesday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

Washington, August 23.—After Monday the interest will be paid on ten-forties without rebate.

NEW YORK.

New York, August 23.—The first of the new crop of Carolina rice was received to-day—the earliest ever received by nearly three weeks. The season in most sections is favorable.

A special dispatch to the Telegram, dated London says there is nothing official from either army since yesterday. Private advices assert that the Ch lons army is moving towards Thionville in a desperate effort to effect a junction with Bazaine, escaping the Prince Royal and passing the German army north of Verdun. McMahon is left the choice of two evils—either to leave the road to Paris open or, by holding it, to sacrifice Bazaine.

A special dispatch to the Courier des Etats Unis dated Paris 24, says preparations for the combat are being made all along the line. Paris is virtually in a state of siege. It is generally conceded that the issue of the campaign will be decided under our walls. If we are able to hold out for a week, and we are able, against an enemy destitute of material for carrying on a siege, all France will come to the succor of the capital.

FOREIGN.

Madrid August 23.—The government is taking men sure to repress instantly any revolutionary outbreak.

Paris, August 23.—No decisive action from the daily meetings of the diplomats.

The French are buying horses in Italy.

Paris is provisioned for two months and has wine for six months.

Six millions of francs have been distributed among the families of the soldiers.

Upwards 300 aids in the Prussian army.

Ten thousand of the Prussian wounded have been sent to Berlin.

In the Corps yesterday when Palikao gave reassuring news, Keratry demand the date and also whether the despatch was from Bazaine. Palikao replied it was the 19th, and the uproar in the chamber drowned the answer regarding the authenticity. Keratry proposed that the despatches be added to the Committee of Defence. The party of the Left and some members of the majority gave sign of approval. After the tumult succeeded Palikao said the Committee of Defence was numerous enough. In the name of the whole cabinet he repelled the proposition just made. The question of confidence was thus established and the deputies retired to debate the matter. The matter will be decided to-morrow, and creates sensation as an attempt to interfere with the administration of affairs. The dispatch alluded to was from Bazaine.

Palikao is certain to be sustained by the Corps, otherwise he would not have been so decided.

It is officially denied that Prince Napoleon went to Victor Emanuel on a diplomatic mission.

The Archbishop of Paris desires the clergy to contradict the report that the Pope solicited the King of Prussia.

A number of cities were arrested to-day.

The Soecle says that the seven hundred and fifty million loan is more than it has been.

It seems certain that a project will be brought before the Great Powers to prevent the commencement of France.

Assurances have been sent to the Pope by the French government that Italy has no intention of attacking Rome.

London, August 23.—It is reported that the Crown Prince is abandoning the march on Paris and has gone to the support of the Prussian armies west of Metz, which is threatened with a formidable attack from Bazaine, reinforced by McMahon.

A dispatch from Alexandria says that the frigate "Hertha," 28 guns, has been captured by the French.

Wednesday Evening Dispatches.

FOREIGN.

Stuttgart, August 24.—The capitulation of Phalsburg is not officially confirmed.

Carls Bute, August 24.—The commandant of Kehl protests against Strasburg firing upon Kehl.

Paris, August 24.—The Prussians attacked and killed some Bavarian soldiers on the frontier. The Press says that the Great Powers are officially informed that peace is impossible while a Prussian soldier treads French soil.

The Figaro wants electric lights on the Paris ramparts.

A dispatch from Mezrieres yesterday, says that Bazaine's small force prevented the Prussian advance until McMahon's preparations were complete.

McMahon and Bazaine are now ready to assume the offensive.

The La Liberte says that the Crown Prince has not passed St. Dizier but has fallen back.

The La Liberte knows from a reliable source that the Prussians loss was 25,000 killed and 8,000 wounded.

London, August 24.—News of a French victory would cause a panic in the stock market here.

The Times in correcting itself says that Madame Canrobert and family are not in England.

Obscurity surrounds McMahon's movements. The following Paris dispatch contains the latest: Metz is entirely isolated. The Prussians are strong west of Metz. Gen. Forilly, who commanded at Chalons, is superseded by new commandations.

McMahon is strongly posted on the plains before Stalons, with heavy detachments at St. Menehould Verdun and Rheims. McMahon commands 170 000 men fully supplied with everything. Sharp-shooters are hasting to Chalons.

Swine-Mund, August 24.—The French fleet in the Baltic have an English captain and a Danish skipper, and have also secured pilots by promises of splendid rewards.

Havana, August 24.—Goosie officially reports the capture and execution of General Pedro Figueroto, Assistant Secretary of War, the aral Rodigo Tamaya and his son, General Dugal Figuredy and Col. Fernandino.

CHOLERA.

How to cure it.

At the commencement of the Diarrhœa, which always precedes an attack of the Cholera, take a teaspoonful of the Pain Killer in sugar and water, (hot, if convenient,) and then bathe freely the stomach and bowels with the Pain Killer clear. Should the diarrhœa or cramps continue, repeat the dose every ten or fifteen minutes until the patient is relieved. In extreme cases, two or more teaspoonfuls may be given at a dose.

The Pain Killer, as an internal remedy, has no equal. In cases of Cholera, Summer Complaints, Dyspepsia, Dysentery, Asthma, cures in one night by taking it internally, and bathing with it freely. Its action is like magic, when externally applied to old Sores, Burns, Scalds, and Strains. For Sick Headache and Toothache, don't fail to try it. In short, it is a Pain Killer.

Directions accompany each bottle.

The Pain Killer is sold by all dealers in Medicines.

Having packed bales to weigh from five hundred and ninety (590) to six hundred and twelve pounds (612.) Mr. Thomas H. Briggs: Dear Sir:—Yours of 12th instant, inquiring as to the merits of the "Utley Cotton Press" is to hand and in reply I would say that I have tried other Presses and consider the gain upon which the Utley Press works cheaper, simpler and more durable than any I have met with.

GENERAL AGENTS,

CHARLOTTE N. C.

THE EQUITABLE

HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.

Its New Business (sum assured), for the year 1869, exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than Thirteen Million Dollars.

In 1860 it was the 9th Company in new business for the year; in 1861 it was the 8th; in 1862 and 1863, the 7th; in 1864 and 1865 the 6th; in 1866, the 4th; in 1867, the 3d; in 1868, the 2nd;

In 1869 it was the FIRST.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" after they once begin to pay them at all; but they do not begin to pay until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One hundred Dollars paid in dividends at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals four hundred and thirty-six dollars paid at the end of four years, interest at six per cent.

Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

Gentlemen of character desirous of forming a connection with the Society as Agents are invited to communicate with its General Agents.

We honestly think two boxes of Mchegan's Bankers might be induced to influence even Grant to compassion in regard to the suffering Cubans.

NON-EXPLOSIVE COMBINATION BURNING FLUID

THE CHEAPEST, BEST AND SAFEST ILLUMINATING AGENT IN

THE WORLD!!

No more Exploded Cans!—No more Exploded Lamps!
No more Smoke!—No more Grease!
No more Fires!!

EVERYBODY PREFERS IT AFTER GIVING IT A TRIAL!

IT costs less!—It lasts longer!—Gives a more Brilliant Light!—May be burned in hand lamps, without chimney.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON-EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 8th 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and not injurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skil. and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

The Globe has peculiar claims upon the Southern country, from having first introduced the non-forfeiting feature in all its policies. Its President, Mr. Pliny Freeman, was the inventor of the ten-year, non-forfeiture plan, and introduced it in the Company with which he was then connected.

The Globe takes no notes; but receives its premiums in cash, and pays its policies in cash, without deduction.

To those desiring it, the Company will issue policies, registered and certified by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York, as "secured by pledge of public stock."
